Artistic Homes And The Discovery Channel

Artistic Homes, Inc. to Appear in Renovation Nation

Albuquerque, New Mexico, March 25, 2008: The Discovery Channel, known for uncovering the unique ways in which man interacts with nature, has made a discovery of its own here in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Artistic Homes, a local, family owned and operated builder of High Performance Homes will be featured on an upcoming series Renovation Nation. Crews will be filming several of Artistic Homes' new home construction projects on Monday, March 31st, in Rio Rancho, NM.

"When the producers called, they told us they had searched the country for a home builder that specializes in green design in new home construction, one focused on the whole process of being green" said Tom Wade, co-owner of Artistic Homes. "In 1999, with the help of the DOE's Building America Program, we changed our entire product line to 100% tested and guaranteed high performance green homes. It's been the right thing to do... for our buyers and for us. So, of course, we enthusiastically agreed to lend a hand. If this [Renovation Nation] can help others understand the importance of green building, then we are all for it".
